'Cornwall's Devilishly-good Drama Group'

We have performed at the Perranwell Centre for over 30 years and include a youth group. We are an RSC open spaces company and have performed at the Minack.

We offer a warm welcome to everyone, regardless of age 7+, irrespective of skills, gender or disability.

We meet most Sunday afternoons 2pm-5pm in the Perranwell Centre where we build, rehearse and perform 3-4 shows a year.

Drama is not just about being on stage; there is off stage, back stage and front of stage too. It's a place where you get to do all sorts of stuff in a safe environment and where friendships forged can last a lifetime.

As I write this Perranwell is in fog and damp as the heat wave is well under way in the rest of the UK. Perhaps by the time this reaches the printers next week there may be some serious Cornwall sunshine which the forecasters predict. I hope this finds you enjoying "the summer" so far.

Can I remind readers and advertisers of events that August September is a double issue. For any time-sensitive stuff for those two months please could I have copy for inclusion by the middle of July.

The Big Village events are well underway, (see cover photos), with more to look forward to. Various notices in this issue for a variety of summer events. Great opportunities to make new friends with fellow villagers.

The world beyond the Tamar seems to be in turmoil. The price of fuel has fallen a little since the orange man alleges he has ended the middle east war which he started in the first place. Perhaps time to fill your tanks while the price is down. Beware, this news will likely be out of date by the time you read this.

Following a by-election in Manchester, we may soon be looking at a seventh change of Prime minister in ten years. The last time a metropolitan mayor became prime minister it did not turn out well. The PM eligibility and appointment process becomes increasingly perplexing. One wonders why anyone would want the job in the first place. Fingers crossed that the engine of government doesn't stop for an extended period of turmoil, wailing and gnashing of teeth, as we have seen in the past.

Some years ago, I devised a road sign warning for political content (as above) which I will use again in future when appropriate.

Following my account of the county council election count in the cathedral a year ago, I received a patronising and very condescending email advising me that there should be no mention of politics in a village magazine. I realise that many people are disenchanted with politicians, but not everyone who reads Perran News goes through life with their hands over their eyes and their fingers in their ears. Other readers of the offending item took the trouble to say how much they enjoyed reading the article. You can't please everybody all the time.

If you don't like what you see in Perran News reading it is not compulsory.

Thank you to the advertisers who pay for your free copy of the magazine every month so please support them. It is very gratifying that Perran News is perceived as such an effective local directory for the village. Readers if you use an advertiser in Perran News please could you mention you saw the advert in our pages to give them encouragement to continue supporting your free village newspaper. Also, if you know of any tradesmen, businesses or other people who would gain from advertising in Perran News please recommend it to them. Please direct advertising stuff to email: perrannewsads@gmail.com

If you have an event you want to advertise which is scheduled for the first ten days of the month, can I suggest you plan ahead, and publicise it in the preceding month's issue so people will have reasonable notice and there is no likelihood of the event taking place before some readers receive their magazine. THE COPY DATE FOR MATERIAL INCLUDING ADVERTS IS 12TH OF THE MONTH PRECEDING PUBLICATION PLEASE.

Thank you to all contributors to Perran News. It is an enormous help if you type an item for the magazine on a computer word processor. You can send it in electronic form as a .txt or .doc file, on a disk or ideally as an email attachment. If you have an Apple computer, please could you send files as .doc or rtf as Pages files are incompatible with my windows computer. Please could you also give your files and pictures a brief descriptive title so that I don't have half a dozen perrannewsnov.doc files to sort out. Thanks. If you send articles electronically, could you not include fancy fonts or complicated formatting, the simpler the better, thanks.

Send articles to me at markgripper@gmail.com If you handwrite articles, please make them as clear and legible as possible particularly unusual words or we may make mistakes.

A Record-Breaking Month

It wasn't particularly warm at the start, and the second full week was distinctly cool for May, but the weather improved dramatically from the 19th onwards for the rest of the month. The days 19th to the 31st all recorded maxima of 20C or higher, peaking at 26C on the 26th, a new May record in my Perranwell recordings going back to 1987. Daytime temperatures averaged over the month were nearly 2C higher than average, and nighttime minima about 0.8C above average.

For many families, getting outside or perhaps meeting up for the Whitsun half term week, this was a welcome change from the usually mixed weather that seems to arrive in time for the holiday.

Rainfall was concentrated into just two spells, 2nd and 3rd, followed by 17th and 18th. These wet days were enough to just exceed the May average rainfall, even though the rest of the month was virtually dry.

Sunshine totals were near average for May, which is generally our sunniest month, while wind speeds were on the low side.

Nationally, May was provisionally the joint third warmest on record, and a new record maximum temperature for the month of 35.1C was recorded at Kew Gardens on the 26th. Apparently, Camborne recorded a new all-time national highest recorded minimum temperature on the 27th of 21.4C, although my recording for Perranwell was somewhat lower.

Well Said

"Sunshine is delicious, rain is refreshing, wind braces us, snow is exhilarating; there is really no such thing as bad weather, only different kinds of good weather."

John Ruskin (1819-1900), art critic, poet and social thinker

June Update

After the end of May heatwave, the first two weeks were quite cloudy, unsettled and wet, with the June average rainfall already reached after just 10 days. There was a welcome change in the weather for the weekend 13/14 June, with higher temperatures and virtually wall-to-wall sunshine.

Perranwell Memory Café

There is a Memory Café Network throughout Cornwall. Our Perranwell Café is unique and is run by a group of committed and caring volunteers from the local community. We meet every 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month from 2-4pm at the Village Hall.

There's always a tea break with plenty of delicious homemade cakes supplied by volunteers. Sessions are made up of activities such as quizzes, games and singing, as well as movement activities like tai chi, and guest performers and facilitators such as musicians and artists. We also manage to fit in a few outings over the year to nearby places such as Trebah Gardens. Guests and carers are always warmly welcomed.

There's plenty of laughter, time to catch up on news and also get a little drop of support if and when it's needed.

PERRAN-AR-WORTHAL COMMUNITY SPEEDWATCH GROUP

Volunteering Opportunity

This group was formed in 2014, prompted by a series of fatal and serious injury accidents on the A39 near the Norway Inn, and complaints from residents of the village regarding speeding.

Following the installation of average speed cameras on the A39, we didn't need to operate there anymore, but the group has continued to work at various approved places within the village.

Over the years some of the group have had to leave for various reasons, and we are looking for some new folk to join us. Sessions can take place at any time in daylight, and last an hour.

If you would like more information, please contact me - Stuart Douglas 07932 033 463

COUNTY COUNCIL REPORT

It was lovely to attend the recent licensing and installation of the Reverend Sarah Bick as priest in charge of the Waterside benefice. The service was held at Feock church, with wardens from each of the three Waterside churches playing a role in the service. I was pleased to welcome Sarah on behalf of the wider Perranarworthal community, and I hope she and her family will be very happy here.

The Community Chest fund has recently reopened to applications. This fund gives small grants to not-for-profit groups across Cornwall, and as a Cornwall Councillor I have a small budget to support projects in the local area. Please do get in touch if you're involved in a group and wondering whether to apply.

I was also recently one of three councillors fielding questions from primary school children as they took part in a 'democracy day' at the council chambers. After workshops and team-building activities, the students put us through our paces with a wide range of questions, including 'what's the best thing about being a councillor?', 'do you get nervous when you talk?' and 'who invented democracy?'. I'm always keen to support events aimed at engaging our younger citizens.

At Cornwall Council level, some good news to report with the outcomes of recent inspections. The Care Quality Commission (CQC) rated Cornwall adult social care services 'good' following inspection last year. On SEND services, Ofsted and CQC gave Cornwall the middle of three possible levels. And we have seen improvement at Cornwall Fire and Rescue Service in their latest inspection, although more work remains to be done.

Finally, as the men's football World Cup plays out across the pond, Devon & Cornwall Police are raising awareness of the link between sporting events and an increase in domestic abuse. They are partnering with Safer Cornwall to #BlowTheWhistle on abuse – highlighting that abuse will not be ignored and support is always available. So please look out for one another, and don't be afraid to speak up if you witness or experience abusive behaviour. Phone 101 to report or 999 in an emergency.

Finally, and as always, please don't hesitate to get in touch if I can help with anything.

WHAT DOES PERRANWELL STATION MEAN TO YOU?

It was a question posed to Henry and he could just laugh at it - like, through his vague knowledge of Wittgenstein, he could just bat it away as a poor use of language - however, it kept nudging him at the most inappropriate of times. When he was busy on the digger at work perhaps, or filling his van with diesel. He could laugh at it, except...on a night of spectacular bright moonlight, it was just tip tapping away at his window, leering and smug. Henry threw back the sheets, dressed hastily and headed out for a 3am walk. He headed to the Station, sat cross legged on the platform and stared down the tracks... his thoughts uncoupled and began to drift...

Chichester and Rose... the sun forever glows.. because it was just so wonderful.. Every-time..

~At Perran-ar-Worthal school it was as if a convention of saints had etched the atmosphere, people smiling and happiness everywhere. Starting in the mid- 1980's Henry had learnt his A-B-C with multi-coloured chalks sweeping the blackboard of Mrs Birkett, infants sitting in hobbit sized chairs at diminutive desks in a room adjoining the canteen. Everybody loved Mrs Birkett. There was a BBC computer with a somewhat spooky game called Granny's Garden.

If you tripped in the playground Mrs Kemp would be on hand to administer some "magic cream" to the wound. Everybody loved Mrs Kemp. Henry stepped up to Mrs Chattertons class, held in a temporary building- the "Elliot Hut". There was a small pond down beyond the shrubbery to fascinate students with bugs and the like, plus of course, a tortoise. Henry's learning progressed in the manner of the tortoise and his Mother protested against him being held back a year.

There was the annual nativity play, days out, various celebrations... however it was the sports day that Henry loved best. The school divided into two teams....

Chichester and Rose... always the sun glows... because it was just so wonderful.. every-time...

The mornings birdsong descended like a thump to his senses. He stood from the Station and strode away. Henry felt he deflected the curious question by walking inside it. He got to the King George playing field and sat with his back resting on the pavilion. He had grown in the same home he now inhabited, on the border with Frogpool. It's where his wife Angela wanted to be and she was his reason. An Angel with an A. The idyllic upbringing had been a shield against the fact that life could contain so much pain beyond the Parish borders.. there had been no inkling that a soul and spirit could be stalked with such relentless haunts.

~As a boy he had walked alone through the fields and footpaths to the school gate, a scene that could drop anywhere from the schools opening in 1878. He'd moved onto Mrs Gutteridge class, spending breaks in the playground at the rear of the school that the bigger kids hounded. There was a climbing frame but no one was allowed on it. Mrs Moore patrolled the lunch playground and caught Henry more than once using the slick mud as a skating rink. He'd usually end the day with at least one sleeve caked in mud. There was a shed in the playground that housed sports equipment, the distinctive smell of cricket bats, rounders bats, footballs and windballs... sometimes he'd cycle to school with his good friend Simon. The bicycles would haphazardly stacked behind the toilet block. He remembered himself and a girl named Tabitha slouching behind the village hall, reading their school reports before they got home.

In the final two years at the local school he was in Mr Davey's class and it was as if Mrs Kemp had pasted the magic cream over life itself. Davey allowed the imagination to graze and fatten. He could remember feeling genuinely, gloriously, happy....

Maybe that's what the village meant to him. He could often feel himself and the village woven and one, seamless, timeless...like a single strand of DNA. A place where all thoughts and words could dance into inconsequential colour. He had moved onto Penryn Secondary School and hated it. He had blundered through heartbreak, addiction, depression, bereavement; reality had collapsed until he met Angela... that was the meaning of Perranwell Station. Angela.. and Love...he could once again blissfully saunter the Parish paths and fields while life slipped quietly by... because he and Angela could simply be...

Chichester and Rose... the love forever grows... because its just so wonderful. Every-time xx

SUNDAY CREAM TEA AFTERNOON

On

Sunday July 19th 2-5pm

Perranarworthal WI are holding a Cream Tea at CRAIGARD, Treworthal Road, Perranwell Station, TR3 7QB.

Come rain or shine!!

Come and have a relaxing afternoon talking to friends and enjoying home made cakes and scones. There will be a raffle. Donations will be for the new village hall and may be given in cash or using a QR code.

Please come and bring family or friends for a relaxing afternoon.

WI GREAT WORK

Many thanks to our hardworking WI members who have an eye for making our village even more attractive.

We have had lovely comments about the planting & watering of attractive summer bedding. Well done to Sue Godfrey, Val Parker & Elaine Cardew for planting around the bus shelter & village hall planters.

Thanks also to Chris Bulman & Carol Woodman for maintaining & watering when needed!! We are pleased that Sue Short & Annie Reynolds have agreed to cultivate the area around the signpost on the junction of Greenwith Hill & Station Road.

These ladies have done a fantastic job in creating colour & joy for us all to share. Thank you.

Kernewek as they say in these parts!!

Perranarworthal WI are always on the lookout for new members. Please come along to one of our meetings on the 2nd Tuesday of every month.

We are a warm welcoming group, with plenty going on.

Judith Lea

PERRANARWORTHAL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE TASTER SESSION

Perranarworthal WI are inviting ladies of all ages to come to a Taster Session on Tuesday September 15th from 7.15pm until 9.15pm. We have a very interesting speaker coming to talk on The Colourful Personal Life of Queen Victoria. Susan Symons has written several books on German Royal History and five on Queen Victoria. It should be a fascinating evening. Home made cakes and a cup of tea are always an important part of our meetings with a chance to meet new friends or chat to old ones.

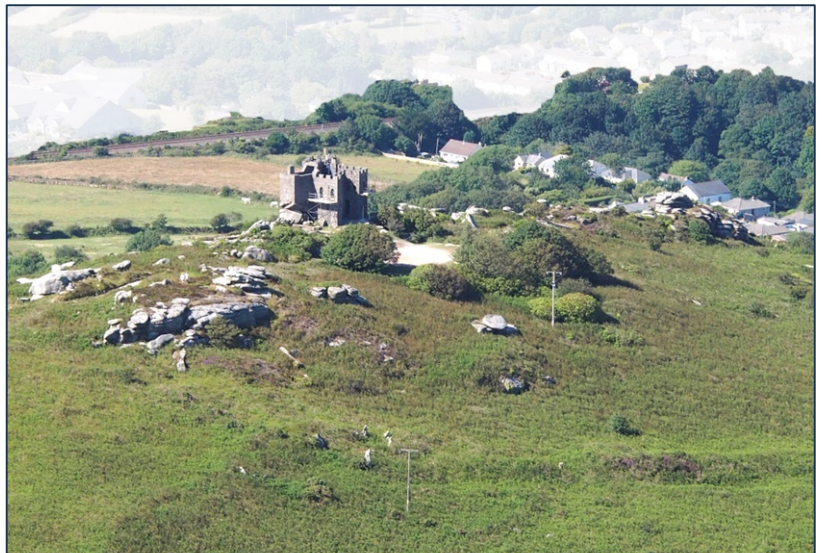

Please do come along and sample an evening with the friendly WI. We meet at The Perranwell Centre (Village Hall) on School Hill on the second Tuesday of the month at 7.15pm.

If you have any questions please contact Judith on 07800 514 758 or Sue on 07437 019 190

PERRANARWORTHAL LOCAL HISTORY GROUP

OUR NEXT EVENT – A WALK AROUND CARN BREA

On Sunday July 19th our Chairman, Steve Hartgroves, will be leading a walk around Carn Brea south of Redruth. Atop this hill sits one of the most important archaeological sites in Britain, consisting of a fortified village constructed by our 'first farmers' around the hilltop some 6,000 years ago. Despite centuries of continuous exploitation the remains of this occupation can still just about be discerned - if you know where to look.

There is limited parking on or around the hill, so we will meet in the car park by the Village Hall, at 14:30, and arrange our transport to the site in as few vehicles as possible. We may have to restrict numbers so if you wish to attend please register your interest in advance at steve.hartgroves@btinternet.com

The walk will be along rough footpaths, a bit steep in places, and the hill is very exposed to the elements, so ensure you wear appropriate 'outdoor' clothing.

PARISH COUNCIL NEWS: JUNE 2026

Parish Council Headlines

The parish council met on Wednesday 3 June and these are the key headlines from the meeting.

New handrail: Following a request from several local residents, the parish council agreed to pay for the installation of a new metal handrail on stone stile. The stile can be found on the footpath that runs from St Piran's Hill and joins another footpath that runs from the shop to the church. It is particularly slippery when wet, and the drop on the St Piran's Hill side is much greater than the other. The cost will be £1,485 net of Vat (the parish council can reclaim Vat) and will be similar in design to others installed in the last couple of years (see the photos on the next page). Walking is recognised as contributing to the health and wellbeing of the community and the parish council is pleased to be able to promote the maximum use of the excellent range of footpaths in the parish.

Enhanced Local Management Partnership: The parish council receives a small amount of funding from Cornwall Council for footpath maintenance, augmented by its own footpath maintenance budget. However, the parish council agreed to apply for an additional grant of up to £10,000 for further improvements to public rights of way.

New Road Safety Strategy: Cornwall Council has published a new Road Safety Strategy which prioritises the safety of pedestrians, cyclists and horse riders over motor vehicles. The new strategy will help the parish council with new initiatives to slow traffic.

Website audit: The parish council recently conducted an audit of its website. Some information was identified as missing and some was out of date; these matters will be corrected. Somewhat confusingly, dates of meetings and events occurred in three different places, so we will see if all the dates can be brought within a single calendar. Following several requests, budget data will be added to the website, and an effort will be made to streamline the website.

Publicity: the parish council decided to continue with the new four-page insert in the monthly edition of Perran News as the new format seems to have met with a favourable response. The cost is currently £136 per month, including delivery to every household in the parish (with thanks to the delivery team at Perran News).

Annual accounts: Our internal auditor approved the accounts for 2025-26 and the parish council agreed the Annual Governance & Accounting Return to be sent to the external auditor. Notices will be displayed informing parishioners of their right to inspect the annual accounts.

A Wine-derful Evening!

As part of the Big Village programme, David and Fleur Podd hosted a Cheese & Wine Party on Thursday 21 May in the Community Store.

David described the various types of wine and wine-tasting techniques. Guests were then invited to apply their newly acquired skills on a range of cheese and wine. Traditionally, each sample of wine is disposed of after tasting, but on this occasion it seemed that most of the wine was imbibed rather than wasted.

A great time was had by all, and it was particularly nice for the event to be located in the Community Store, which genuinely is our village shop.

Well done, David and Fleur, and thank you.

Tribute to Cllr Ward

The funeral for Cllr Dave Ward was held on Monday 18 May 2026. The chairman of the parish council, Colin Bridges, paid this heartfelt tribute.

“At the time of his passing, Dave was a sitting member of Perranarworthal Parish Council. Therefore, today as a mark of respect I’m wearing the chairman’s chain of office. If the parish council were permitted to purchase ordnance, Dave would surely have deserved a 21-gun salute, but this humble chain of office will have to suffice. Perhaps Dave would have preferred it that way.

Dave was co-opted on to the parish council in November 2018. He lost his seat at the 2021 election, not through lack of popularity, he said, but principally because his surname began with ‘W’ so his name was at the bottom of the list of candidates. However, he was cheerfully co-opted again in June 2023 and re-elected in 2025. He was a persistent chap.

He was also a trustee of the Perranwell Centre (that is, the village hall), treasurer of the local history group and one of the founding members of our new community store. He gave generously to the community, stepping in whenever help was needed, but never blowing his own trumpet.

Dave also had a fine sense of humour - who could forget the barbecue in the rain? - and he brought a healthy dose of common sense to proceedings, often cutting to the chase by remarking, “Of course, it’s all a load of nonsense.”

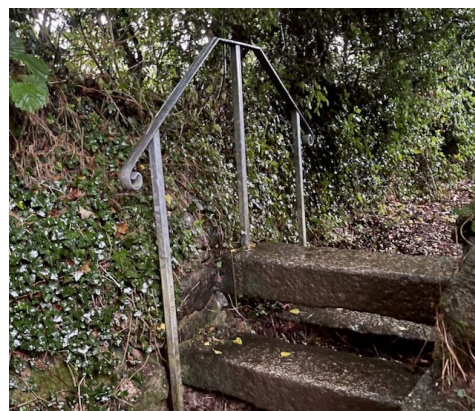

But Dave saved the best until last. Courageously, he contributed as much as he could to parish council business right through his battle with cancer. His final parish council meeting was as recently as 1st April.

The parish council manages part of the local cemetery. Towards the end of that council meeting, we reached the item on burial fees. Dave - with typically dark and self-deprecating humour - interjected in his usual forthright manner. He said, “Perhaps I should declare an interest.”

We laughed, of course, but it was a poignant moment. None of us realised that the end was quite so near.

Persistent, generous, humorous, wise, modest and courageous. That’s a fine list of qualities by which Dave will be remembered.

Thank you, Dave, for all that you did and all that you were.”

Use it or lose it!

The parish benefits from a wide range of facilities and services, as well as voluntary groups, most of which are listed in the Directory at the back of Perran News.

We would like to encourage everyone to use them as much as possible.

If we don’t use them, we will lose them.

Big Village Weekend

Festival of Music

19 & 20 June

Don’t miss it!

News in brief

St Piran's Day Celebration 2027: Following the resounding success of this year's Celebration, plans are already being laid for an even bigger and better St Piran's Celebration in 2027. This year's event was held on a Thursday. Next year's event will take place over two days, Friday and Saturday. Put the dates in your diaries now – Friday 5 March and Saturday 6 March. You won't want to miss it!

Trewedna development: It looks as if discussions about the street lamps along the footpath have come to an end and they are here to stay, albeit with some modifications to make them 'dark skies compliant'. Responsibility for the intransigence lies between the planning department, the highways authority and Coastline. The lesson: the details of developments must be scrutinised much more carefully next time.

Speedwatch is active: new volunteers have been recruited, and a new monitoring point will be established near Tanners Lane. Speedwatch sessions will be held every Friday morning at either the station, the bottom of Station Road or St Piran's Hill.

Inter-parish cooperation: The parish council has four vehicle-activated speed monitors, which can be placed in different locations. Residents from Bissoe have asked if they can borrow one of our monitors for up to three months. In return, they will help with data retrieval. The details of this arrangement, such as insurance and transportability, are still being worked out as monitors are expensive, but it would be good to share resources to gain maximum benefit. In return, the Bissoe residents have offered to help with data analysis.

Partnership working: The parish council is a member of the Mining Villages Regeneration Group, a consortium of ten local parish councils located in and around the mining area between here and Redruth. Individually, each parish council is pretty small and it can be difficult to make our voice heard. However, our voice is greatly strengthened by collaborating with other small parish councils to reflect the concerns of rural parishes.

Recent developments: Some of you may have recently become aware of the situation in a neighbouring parish council concerning a particular building project. Various allegations have been circulating. You may, quite rightly, be worried that a particular company that has been criticised is involved in this parish, and may be wondering about the steps being taken by this parish council to minimize any risk to this parish. You will also appreciate, however, that some of the allegations are of a serious and sensitive nature and are only allegations and not necessarily proven, so it would not be right to go into detail at this stage. However, the parish council is taking matters seriously and has been making its own enquiries. We will continue to do so until we are satisfied about the situation and have taken any necessary action to address concerns. All the relevant matters will be presented to, and discussed by, the full parish council in due course, probably in a meeting when the parish council sits as the trustee of the playing field. We would ask for your patience and understanding so that the various allegations can be handled in a proper and correct manner that is fair to all parties.

Congratulations to the School!

The village school officially opened its new extension on Saturday 9 May. The new building is a wonderful blend of old and modern and looks great.

The guest of honour at the opening ceremony was Rachel Kemp, who is believed to be the oldest living person born in the village. Rachel first attended the school as a pupil in 1941 and was later the school secretary for 30 years. The photo shows Rachel about to ring the old school bell, assisted by Mr Teasdale.

Tidy-up News

More volunteers for the Tidy-up Day would be most welcome. If you look around, you'll see plenty of litter in the village, particularly on School Hill and Station Road. The bus stop at Perran Foundry is also another hot spot. It would be great to clear this up and keep the parish looking good. For a village to look it's best, everyone needs to play their part. Just because there are organised Village Tidy-up Days doesn't mean you can't do your bit. For example, you can make sure the lower limbs of your trees or bushes are not interfering with visibility sight lines for road users or making it difficult for the safe passage of pedestrians on pavements or footpaths. If you think an obstruction in your ownership might be affecting others but can't deal with it yourself, just contact your Parish Council who may be able to offer help or advice. Also, if you know of any area that might benefit from a tidy-up, please let one of the parish councillors know. Thank you.

FANCY A CHAT?

During the next Tidy-up Day, I will be having a coffee in the Community Store between 10.30 and 11.30, returning to the Village Hall for a pasty lunch at 12.30. Please do come and find me if you would like to discuss any item of parish council business or raise an issue with which the parish council may be able to help. Cllr Colin Bridges

Parish Council meetings in June

All at 7.00 pm in the village hall

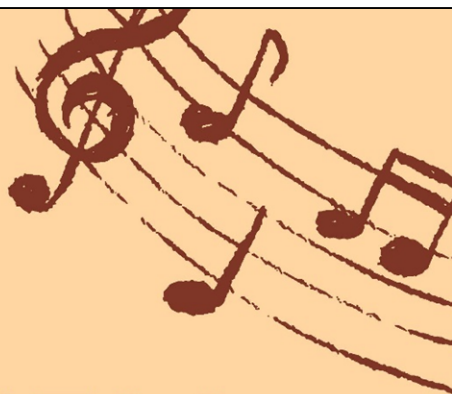

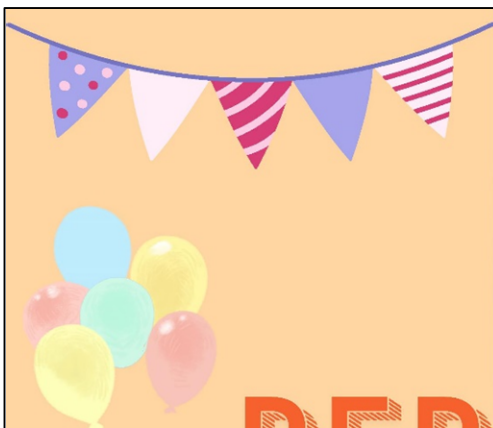

Wed 8 July: Planning Committee & Full Council

Wed 15 July: Highways & Public Rights of Way Working Group

As always, you are welcome to join meetings of the council and its various working groups. Agendas are normally published in advance on the noticeboards and website. If you have any views or comments on the work of the council, the Clerk or any councillor would be pleased to receive them.

WE NEED YOU!

As we look forward to a busy programme of fundraising events in the coming months, we need your help.

We're on the lookout for volunteers to help at the fabulous events we have coming up, either on the day or with planning and preparation.

As a reminder, upcoming events include:-

- July - date TBC - Open house and cream tea party
- August 8th - Summer Concert featuring St Stythians Band and other guests, with a cream tea before the concert
- September - date TBC - Outdoor film screening
- October 17th - Games Night including Black Jack, Poker and more, in collaboration with FOPS
- October 31st - Halloween party for all ages, with the hugely popular haunted house experience back by popular demand
- December 19th - Christmas Concert
- March 5th 2027 - St Piran's Day Celebration

These are just some events in addition to other fundraising events being run under the umbrella of the Big Village Campaign. The campaign, supported and coordinated by the Parish Council, aims to encourage everyone in the parish to get involved in fundraising for a new village hall.

All of these events can only take place with the support of volunteers to help run them, so we're looking for people who might want to get involved - no matter how much or how little - whether it's planning and promoting, setting up the hall and clearing away, or roles at the event like welcoming people and selling tickets, raffle tickets, also serving food and drinks.

People who would like to get involved can contact community fundraising trustee Jenie on jeniep@yahoo.com or chair of trustees John on j19frankland@icloud.com, or come along to our next events team meeting, which will be at the village hall on Tuesday 12th May at 7pm. You can meet the other members of the events team and hear a bit more about our fundraising plans for this year. We'd love to meet you!

You can also find out more about upcoming events and the Big Village campaign on <https://www.perranwellbigvillage.co.uk/>

TARRANDEAN LANE OPEN AFTERNOON

on

Sunday 5th July 2-5pm

Some residents in Tarrandean Lane are opening their homes and gardens as one of the fundraising events towards the cost of our new village hall.

This will provide an opportunity for visitors to view the variety of hobbies and interests of those hosting the afternoon as well as enjoy refreshments in one of the gardens.

Donations may be given in cash or using the QR code being displayed at each venue'

Please join us, have surprises and fun, bring your family and friends!
